

Volume VI

The Academy, Education, and the Media

Contents

Case Study of Rural Women in Literacy and Development in Ghana William Addai	5
Energizing the Nigerian Woman for the Actualization of Her Managerial Potentials in Education Mina Victor Akan	20
Experiments in Working with Women in Urban and Rural Settings Ranjan Amin	50
Creating a Pathway to College for Students of African Descent: Elements of a Plan that Works Exie B. Ashburn	66
A Case Study of the Post Literacy Curriculum to Enhance the Relevancy and Impact on Women in Tanzania Eva Biswaro	74
Nigerian Women and Academic Leadership U. G. Emetarom	86
Women Activism and National Development in Nigeria Akon Esu and Mary Essang	98

Women Education and Development in Nigeria Jessica Ezekiel-Hart	110
The Sign of "Woman" and the Meaning of Mourning in American News Portrayals of Violence in South Africa Jo Ellen Fair	126
A West Indian Voice on Systemic Discrimination in Higher Education: Unweaving the Web of Teaching, Learning and Research Joyce T. Forbes	142
The Contribution of the African State in the Formulation of Principles and Laws Governing the Use of Direct Satellite Broadcasting Patricia A. Harvey-Holmes	152
Literacy Education and Women's Development in Nigeria Amelia N. O. Jaja	164
Implementing Women's Resource Centers in Developing Countries: A Proposed Model Sadye L. Logan	182
Bringing Reality into Childhood Education Clara Menakaya	236
The Implications of the Nigerian 6-3-3-4 System of Education Clara Menakaya	196
The Language of the Arts in the Classroom Clara Menakaya	208

The Role of Play in the Education of the Child Clara Menakaya	224
Education of Women in Nigeria: The Challenge for the Educated Elite Alice N. Ndu	246
Bridging the Academy: Africa to America Mari Nelson	258
Uptake of Science and Technology Courses by Girls Nwadiuto Nkpa	266
Experiences of Nigerian Women in Science Education J. N. Ogwo	280
Female Teachers' Perception of Integration Program for Handicapped Children in Nigeria Primary Schools Joy R. Okeke	290
Breaking the Barriers: What Role for Women in Language and Communication? Ifeoma Okoye	304
Family Background, Marriage and Higher Education among Igbo Women; A Comparative Study of the Phenomena of Early and Delayed Tertiary Education for Nigerian Women Ada C. Okwuosa	314
Women and Adult Education in Africa Seko Hilda Phiri	330

Women and Publishing: A Feminist Perspective Esther D. Rothblum and Ellen Cole	346
Colonial Education for Girls in AOF: A Project for Gender-Reconstruction, Problematique and Methodology Gwen Schulman and Sandra Daley	352
Nigerian Women in the Media: Challenges and Prospects Mediline Tador	364
Biblical Inspiration for Indigenous Technology: Whither Nigerian Women Margaret A. Umeagudosu	376-389